

GOOGLE FOR DEVELOPERS INVITES YOU TO:

North America Connect 2024

Mark your calendars! North America Connect 2024 will take place at the Google MP7 Event Center in Sunnyvale, California on May 16 🎉

Google I/O will be a 2-day event in Mountain View, California from May 14 - 15, 2024 - we are hosting North America Connect for us to connect, learn and share resources with your fellow NA Developer Communities.

To ensure a seamless event experience, you MUST register for both events. Please register for Google I/O first (via the email using the invite code shared with you from io@google.com), before registering for North America Connect on this page.

💡 Reminders:

- If you are not attending I/O, you will not be confirmed for NA Connect. This year's event is prioritized for developers who can attend all three days.
- This event is INVITE ONLY and has LIMITED space. So please register as soon as possible to secure your spot.
- Please expect a confirmation email from our team to confirm your spot after you've RSVP'ed first. There will be more details shared on the booking process for your travel.
- Review the additional tabs for FAQ's and more details around travel / reimbursements and expectations.
